

BOOK REVIEW

Nayi Pahal: A Reflection of Dedication

The greatest power of a human being is his determination. A determined person can make his way through all odds. According to a Hindi Proverb "Ganga won't come down until someone like Bhagirathi comes to guide her the way." A real example of modern Bhagirathi is Mr. Surendra Singh whose exemplary work has brought prosperity for the citizens of Muzaffarnagar. He came in Indian Administrative Service with auspicious good resolution to serve humanity. He is a nurturer of human values and sensitive towards every emotion of Humanity. His family background is enough to represent his noble cause behind joining Administrative Services. The dimensions of development set by him as District Magistrate in Bhadohi, Firozabad and then in Muzaffarnagar are possible for only a person of his will and ability. He is so energetic, devoted, passionate and full of supreme human values that calling him the "Modern Bhagirathi" is not an exaggeration.

Prior to congratulating and glorifying Mr. Surendra Singh, this book wishes to congratulate his parents for giving him such superior values that he became the symbol of public welfare by serving the humanity. At every place where Mr. Singh worked as District magistrate, he opened new doors of positive approaches and set high standards with his unprecedented working style. He took the resolution to make Muzaffarnagar an encroachment free zone and successfully did so which shows that he has the visionary power along with decision making and work ability.

Mr. Singh, an IAS of 2005 batch, belongs to a small village Kasampur of the district Mathura. His journey in achieving such great heights in career is an example for the children from small villages. He has proven that with dedication and hard work one can reach any heights. He often quotes that "birds fly not only because of wings but because of their inner power reflected in their morale and courage." He believes that social welfare is possible only by good education, women empowerment and social camaraderie. His is completely dedicated to bring equality and prosperity in the society.

This book is an attempt to highlight some glimpses of the revolutionary journey of development of Muzaffarnagar under the kind guidance of Mr. Surendra Singh. "Nayee pahal" presents you the visionary work initiatives taken by Mr. Singh and their impact on the growth of the society.

Published by....

Address : Vishnu Vihar
Jansath Road, Muzaffarnagar
(U.P.) - 251001
+91-131-2660084, +91-8057901707

Website: www.abhinavindia.org
Email ID: info@abhinavindia.org,
abhinavngo7@gmail.com

Contribution Amount : Rs-300

